Mission Statement

The Delta Chamber of Commerce is a business organization that supports and represents its membership by promoting business growth and community development through leadership, programs, education and the dissemination of information.

Membership Luncheon

The next membership luncheon will be held on September 15th at noon at TROPHY Lodge. Lunch is $15.00. Please RSVP to the Chamber office if you wish to attend. To be eligible for the free lunch drawing you must RSVP by September 13th at 4pm.

Guest Speaker will be Lieutenant Colonel Terry Clark, Incoming Installation Commander, Fort Greely, Alaska.

Lieutenant Colonel Terry Clark is a native of Huron County, Ohio. He entered the military in 1985 as a Security Policeman in the Air Force National Guard and later transferred to the Active Army as a 19D Cavalry Scout, serving with the 3rd Armored Cavalry Regiment. LTC Clark attended Officer Candidate School at Fort Benning, Georgia and was commissioned as a second lieutenant of Armor in 1993. He later transitioned to the Adjutant General Corps in 1998.

His military education includes: Armor Officer Basic Course, Scout Platoon Leader Course, Adjutant General Officer Advanced Course, Combined Arms and Services Staff School, Joint Planning Course and the Army Command and General Staff College. He holds a Baccalaureate degree in Public Administration from Upper Iowa University where he graduated Cum Laude.

LTC Clark served his first commissioned tour as a Scout Platoon Leader with 2nd Armored Cavalry Regiment, Ft. Polk, Louisiana. Other positions at Fort Polk included Assistant Squadron S4, Company Executive Officer and Assistant G1. His next duty station was Fort Wainwright, Alaska where he served as the Battalion S3 and later as Commander, Alpha Detachment within the 203rd PSB. This was followed by an assignment as the Brigade Adjutant for the 172nd Infantry Brigade (Separate). Leaving Alaska, LTC Clark then served as the Armor Branch Career Management Officer for the Reserves at Human Resource Command, St Louis, Missouri. He then commanded the Butte, Montana Military Entrance Processing Station.

After attending Army Command and General Staff College, LTC Clark served as the Human Resources Operations Branch Chief for the 593rd Sustainment Brigade where he deployed in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom. His most recent assignment was as the I Corps G1 Chief of Personnel Operations, Joint Base Lewis-McChord, Washington.

His awards include the Defense Meritorious Service Medal, Meritorious Service Medal with 2 Oak Leaf Clusters, Army Commendation Medal with 1 Oak Leaf Cluster, Army Achievement Medal with 4 Oak Leaf Clusters, Joint Meritorious Unit Award, Army Superior Unit Award, Army Good Conduct Medal, Air Reserve Forces Meritorious Service Medal, National Defense Service Medal, Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal, Global War on Terrorism Expeditionary Medal, Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, Humanitarian Service Medal, Army Service Ribbon, Overseas Service Ribbon, and the Air Force Training Ribbon. He has earned the Parachutist Badge and has been awarded the Joint Planner and Strategist Additional Skill Identifiers.

To Pablo Martinez and Jeannie Pinkelman for winning the door prizes donated by Golden Valley Electric Association and to Julie Szidloski for winning the free lunch at the Membership Luncheon in August. Thank you Golden Valley Electric Association for donating door prizes!

Chamber members, you can bring attention to your business by donating a door prize to be given away at our monthly membership luncheons. A poster stating who the door prize is donated by is placed by the item and an announcement is made during the drawing. Your business is also recognized in the Chamber News. No item is too large or too small! Logo items are great!

The Small Business Problem Solver

Let me come along side you and lift the planning, trouble-shooting load. I am a low impact management extender, uniquely qualified to assess your needs and offer solutions. Sometimes, even well established businesses need a makeover. Owners/managers may be overwhelmed with the thought and unsure how to begin. Call Tana and let the Small Business Problem Solver do it!

Workable solutions for your business needs

My research shows that many business owners instinctively know there are more effective and efficient ways to operate their business. Others suspect they have dysfunctional systems or approaches. Most, if not all are spread too thin to address additional issues. The Problem Solver is your management extender, offering:

- Operations assessment
- Start up planning
- Business plan review/up date
- Stakeholder mapping & planning strategies
- Policy development or update
- Identify the strengths and how to build on them
- Safety plan development
- Staff or management development sessions
- Goal setting
- I can help you determine your areas of weakness or need AND develop the solution
